Old Mill Court, Bardwell IP31 1BG

Guide Price £650,000

Outstanding detached five bedroomed house offering beautifully presented accommodation in the pretty village of Bardwell.

Built of traditional brick construction with part rendered elevations beneath a tiled roof-line, the house displays many quality features throughout including a fine Inglenook style fireplace in the sitting room, a fully fitted kitchen breakfast room, large principal bedroom with luxurious en-suite, panelled internal doors, oak staircase and benefits from gas fired radiator central heating and sealed unit double glazing. This fine home provides a deceptive level of immaculately presented accommodation extending to 2200 square feet (excluding double garaging) possessing an elegant atmosphere and currently in brief comprising: traditional style entrance door opening to a spacious part-galleried reception hall with a beautiful Karndene herringbone floor, cloakroom and staircase off to first floor. A pair of glass panelled doors open to the dining room which is a ideal room for entertaining with window overlooking the front gardens.

There is a study and of particular note is the superb sitting room with its fabulous Inglenook style fireplace with oak Bressumer beam, wood burning style gas stove and concealed display lighting. This impressive reception room has a light and airy feel, created by two pairs of French doors opening to the rear gardens.

The kitchen breakfast room is fitted with an extensive range of units complemented by built in appliances, range oven and French doors to gardens. The utility room has fitted units, gas fired boiler and a further door to garden.

On the first floor is a spacious landing with airing cupboard and door to the principal bedroom with built in 'wall to wall' wardrobe cupboards, double aspect windows and a luxurious newly fitted en-suite shower.

The four remaining bedrooms have fitted wardrobes (one en-suite) and served by a spacious family bathroom with bath and separate shower enclosure

Outside

The house is approached along a block paved driveway providing extensive vehicle parking, turning space and access to a large double garage with power and lighting. There are lawned front gardens bordered by a maturing laurel hedge. The wrap around garden is a particular feature, being mostly laid to lawn and providing the occupants with a most pleasant degree of privacy. The gardens have well stocked flower beds and borders and include mature trees, hedgerow and a paved terrace providing a pleasant outdoor area for entertaining.

Location

The house is situated in a quiet tucked away setting on the edge of the village and adjacent to open countryside. Bardwell is a thriving village and has a windmill, bakery, two pubs and a parish church. The village is situated approximately 10 miles from Bury St Edmunds and provides excellent access to the A14 dual carriageway, linking Stowmarket (with its main line rail link to London), Newmarket, Cambridge and London via the M11 motorway. The nearby village of Ixworth offers a good range of local facilities including doctor's surgery, retirement home, shops, restaurant, post office, church, two village pubs, and primary and secondary schools. Stanton, also 1 mile distant, offers a good range of local amenities.
